Job Description

The aim of this job description is to provide you with information to define the function of your position within the organisation and to inform the jobholder of their duties.

This document is not an exhaustive or definitive list of duties to be carried out by the jobholder and is only a guideline. It may be updated as required and staff may be asked to undertake any reasonable task or duty necessary to assist with the event.

Job Title: PASTORAL ASSISTANT: Junior Troopers

Department: Summer School

Responsible to: Team Leader

Contracted to: 14 July – 10 August 2019 (plus a mandatory training day on 13 July)

Hours of Work: Monday to Friday: 8.30am – 5.00pm (some evening work until 7pm may be required)

Salary: From £232.18 (depending on age and if accommodation required) per week including all meals.

Overall Duties

To provide comprehensive support to the Team Leader and providing pastoral care for children aged 3-6 years old.

The Role

This position is to provide support to the Junior Trooper programme and Team Leader during Summer School. The Team Leader will have overall responsibility for the smooth running of the group.

Typical tasks

- Registration (this is from 8.30am and from 1.30pm).
- Provide a high level of care and support to children whilst undertaking fun activities, games and quiet sessions in a dynamic and enthusiastic manner.
- General socialising with the children, making them feel cared for and welcome at all times.

- Willingness to help others and to put to whatever is required.
- Help with pastoral care at lunchtimes.
- Advise the Team Leader if you have any safeguarding or behavioural concerns with any of the children.
- All items of lost property should be recorded and delivered to the office on a weekly basis.

Pastoral Carers are entitled to all meals in Norwood Hall in the weeks that they are working. Please collect smart cards from the Team Leader on the Sunday of your first week.

Safeguarding

As we are a school, we follow recommended safe recruitment guidelines during our employment process. Marlborough College/Summer School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure & Barring Service. The appointed person will need to supply the college with photographic evidence when completing this form, i.e. passport, photo-card driving licence, birth certificate and/or marriage certificate. All posts are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as "spent" must be declared.
